HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

BACK TO THE 80'S!

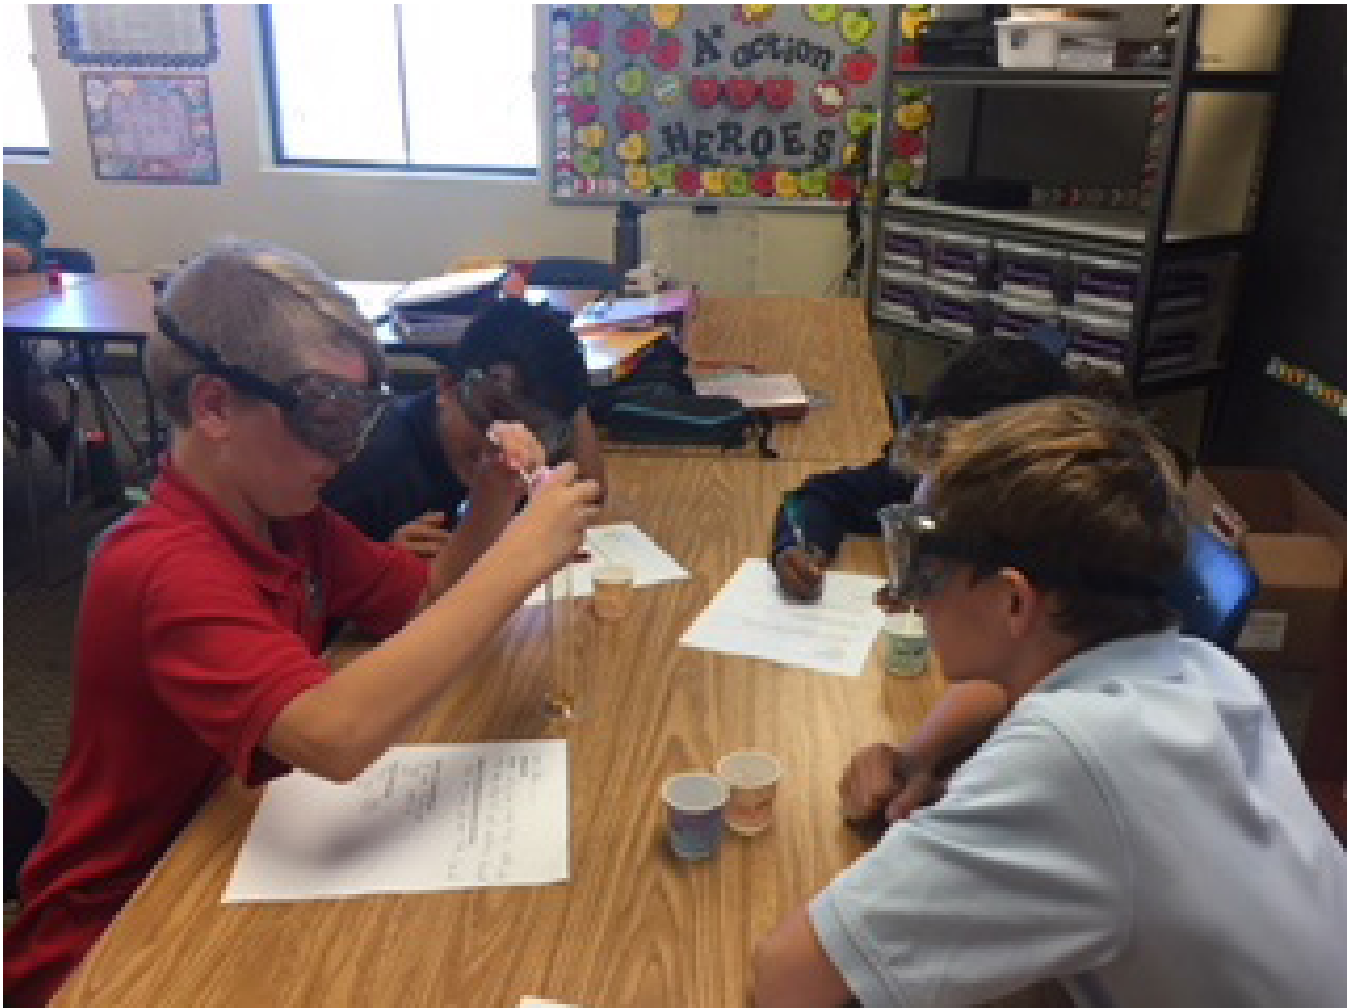

Our high school students turned back time and experienced life in the eighties. For some, it was a reminder of their past, and for others, a new adventure. Visit our Facebook page and check out the video showing the morning events prior to our students departing for the HS Retreat on Wednesday and experience their epic time travel. A NEW CURRICULUM, A NEW OUTLOOK!

Intrigued 6th graders focused on the Next Generation Science Standards Curriculum for lab. As part of the Scientific Method they used the density formula $d=m/v$ to determine which substance is the densest. Students were motivated and excited to put on their safety goggles and document their entries in their Science Interactive Notebooks. Now that's what we call future scientists in the making!

COMPOUNDS GET A REACTION!

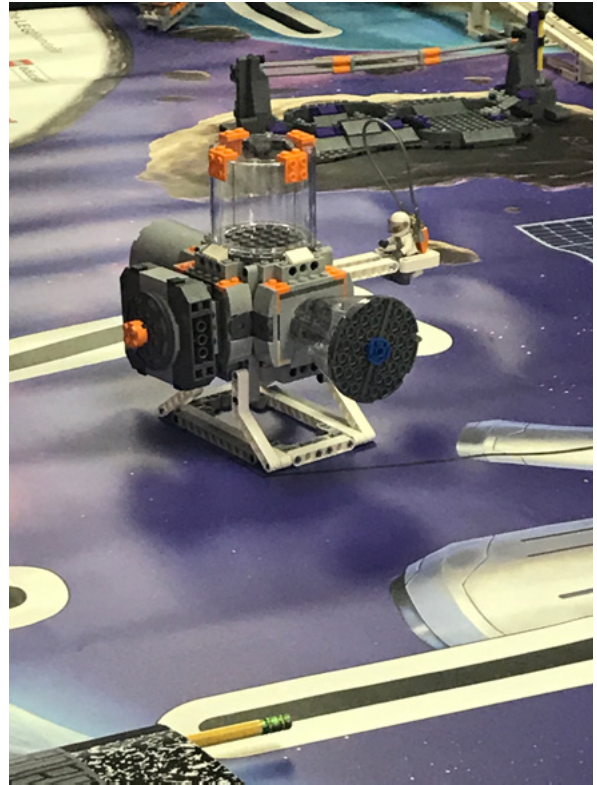

Students in Mrs. Vogel's science class had the opportunity to test the effects of compounds when introduced to the heat of a flame. Eighth graders experimented with various compounds by passing them through a flame so that they could determine the various colors it would omit based on the type of compound. By the looks of it – they had a BLAST!

KINDERGARTENERS CAN COUNT ON ZERO THE HERO

Zero the Hero stopped by Kindergarten to celebrate the 20th day of school. They had intuitive questions, but more importantly asked, what was his superpower? He replied, "It is the ability to count! Our students were amazed and soon discovered they had the superpower as well counting to 20!

PRESCHOOL NEWS

ABUNDANT IN SPIRIT AND TEACHING YOUNG MINDS!

Pastor Ray met with the Preschool teachers for a devotional inspiration. The focus was on spending time with Jesus daily and how it relates to being the best teachers possible for our students, both in instruction and spiritually.

ATHLETICS

A GOLF TEAM FOR JUNIOR HIGH!

Maranatha Junior High Athletics is spreading its wings this fall and competing in a brand new sport. Last Thursday, the Eagles' Coed Golf team, led by Varsity Coach Matt Hunt, hit the links at the Rancho Bernardo Inn to play Rancho Santa Fe Middle School. After a competitive 9 holes, the Eagles were on the short end of the scorecard. However, they made up for it in spirit and enjoyment of the sport. Fourteen golfers make up the MCS roster with the top six from the inter-squad qualifier, competing each week against other South Coast Middle School League teams. GO EAGLES and Hit'em Straight!
